FARRAGHER ARRIVES.

The Youngstown boxer confident of victory in his contest with Stelzer—both men in good condition.

"Mike" Farragher, the Youngstown boxer, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and has established his quarters at Tommy McLaughlin's place, bridge place, where he will train for his approaching twenty-round bout with "Buck" Stelzer, of Columbus. Farragher appears to be in the pink of condition and is confident of his ability to obtain a decision over his opponent. Farragher has done his hardest work over at Youngstown and will put on only the finishing touches here in Wheeling.

Stelzer's quarters are located at Billy Stelzer's place, south of the creek, and the Columbus man is in fine fettle for the coming combat. He has trained hard and faithfully and will enter the Metropolitan's ring next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock and will take the battle of his life career. The men are to weigh in at 135 pounds. President P. J. Gavin, c. the Mets, will probably be the referee.

Workmen are now at work at the Metropolitan's Fulton arena, enlarging the building. Two sides have been torn out and fifteen-foot extensions made. The club is preparing to handle a large crowd next Tuesday night, delegations being promised from Pittsburgh, New Castle, Youngstown, Columbus and other cities.

"Kid" McCoy will leave New York in two weeks for San Francisco. He will take with him his brother, Homer McCoy, who is to meet "Hoboken Tommy" Kelly in a fifteen-round bout at Patterson, N. J., Saturday night, at 142 pounds. McCoy says that before he returns to New York he will engage in three fights. And he will all take place this year. He intends to meet Dan Creedon, Tom Sharkey and Joe Choyinski. He will meet Creedon at 135 pounds. As for Choyinski, he will face him at the same weight. Choyinski, who is now in Cincinnati, said that he would bet $5,000 that he could knock out the "Kid" in twelve rounds, provided the weights were at 165 pounds. He also stated that he would bet $5,000 that he would knock him out in twenty rounds, providing the weights were 155 pounds. McCoy says he will accept the 155 pound proposition of Choyinski's.

"Just tell my old friends that I think I have a couple of good fights in me yet, and I am going to give them a chance to win back the money they lost on me," said John L. Sullivan, in New York on Wednesday. He was the same old John L., cheery and confident, a trifle "beetle" it is true, but as agile as ever. He leaves the city to go direct to "Billy" Muldoon's headquarters in White Plains, there to begin his boxing career. He is going to fight with Bob Fitzsimmons. He looked the picture of good health and sobriety. He was met at the station by Martin Julian, "Bob" Fitzsimmons' brother-in-law and manager. They adjourned to a hotel to discuss the next big fight encounter. The details will be arranged in about two weeks, so Julian said to-day. Sullivan said he was disgusted with the Sharkey-Maher fight. He says he will be his own business manager in the fight with Fitzsimmons; that he is stronger, physically, than ever before; that if defeated by Fitzsimmons, he will never fight again; that he is only thirty-six years of age, a year younger than Maher was when he was knocked out since last October, and that he is "out for the stuff."

President Patrick J. Gavin, of the Metropolitan Athletic Club, says that if the attendance at the Farragher-Stelzer contest justifies it, the club will go after some of the crack championship battlers for a next fall. The Maher-Sharkey, Choyinski-McCoy and other probable bouts are said to be in view.

Wheeling	19	29	.396
Springfield	17	30	.362

Yesterday's winners—New Castle, Toledo, Dayton, Youngstown.

To-day's games—Youngstown at Wheeling; Mansfield at New Castle; Port Wayne at Dayton; Springfield at Toledo.

Wheeling's poorest played game of the season yesterday afternoon. Hallowell was in the box for the Nallers and great things were expected of him, but he was away off. In addition to being hit safely thirteen times, he gave ten bases on balls. Without the bases on balls the game would have been a victory for the locals, even with the miserable fielding that characterized the team's work. For that matter, the Youngstown played a poor game, too. Wheeling had two catchers and three pitchers in the game, O'Brien being indispensed and Coyle having retired from second base. The feature of the game was the hitting of Campbell, who hit safely every time he came to bat, two of the drives being two-baggers. Vetter's was also right in the push with his bat, having three two-base hits. Wheeling got a big lead in the first inning but in the second the team went to pieces and Youngstown scored six runs. The Nallers tied the score in the sixth but in the following innings the visitors jumped six to the front again and Wheeling was prevented from doing much execution in the ninth through a double play.

Batteries—Dayton, Rieman and Weand; Port Wayne, Herr and Campbell.

Springfield Loses Another.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

TOLEDO, June 24.—Springfield and Toledo played a loose game to-day, which was won with ease by Toledo. Dinsmore was batted hard, but the Governors could do little or nothing with Kelb. Score:

Toledo	0	2	0
Springfield	0	1	0

Batteries—Toledo, Kelb and Arthur; Springfield, Dinsmore and Stevick.

Yesterday's winners—Boston, Brooklyn, Cleveland, St. Louis.

To-day's games—Baltimore at Boston, Philadelphia at Brooklyn, St. Louis at Pittsburgh, New York at Washington.

PITTSBURGH, June 24.—St. Louis should have won the game long before they did, but poor fielding made twelve innings possible. The winning run was made through Billy's wild throw to first, followed by two base hits. Pittsburgh's battery was changed in the ninth to try and save the game, but it was useless. Cross was put out of the game and off the grounds in the twelfth for disputing the umpire's decision. Attendance, 800. Score:

Downfall of the Champs.

BOSTON, June 24.—Boston was a decided victory over Baltimore to-day, but the crowd of spectators was so dense that the outfielders were greatly hampered and the ground rules that were put in force detracted largely from the interest in the game. Bergen split his finger in the seventh inning and was replaced by Gansel. Long and Jennings did some phenomenal fielding, while Duffy led in the batting with five hits out of five times at bat. In the seventh Boston piled up five runs on five hits, a home run and an error by Doyle. Score:

	R.	H.	E.

Earned runs, Boston 5; Baltimore 4. Two base hits, Keeler, Home run, Duffy. Easy for Brooklyn.

BROOKLYN, June 24.—The Phillies made their first appearance in Brooklyn this season to-day, and although only about 1,000 persons turned out to greet them, the home team are glad the Quakers are here, as it gives them a chance to regain some of the ground they lost while playing Boston. The score was close and times, but the Brooklyn was never in danger of losing the game. Score:

	R.	H.	E.

Callahan's Costly Error.

CHICAGO, June 24.—The Indians played here to-day for the first time this season and won a well contested game from the Colts. Both teams bunched their hits in the second inning, each side tallying twice, the score remaining 2 to 2 until the sixth, when the only error of the game, a wild throw by Callahan, resulted in three runs for the visitors. Attendance, 1,200. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Cleveland	0	2	0

Earned runs, Chicago 2; Cleveland 2. Callahan and Donovan; Young and Criger. Time, 1:5. Umpire, McDermott.

BASE BALL COMMENT.

Springfield is to have another try for the pennant, the Spiney cup and the Brenner cup. Fans have been considerably worried during the past few days. It was pretty generally concluded that Springfield had seen the last ball game of the season when Fort Wayne defeated the Governors here Saturday, and that the team would find it convenient to disband, and the members return to their several homes. The directors, however, have decided that, which accordingly is to another effort, which accordingly is to be made. The magnates met last night and decided to try again for Whitlister, the Detroit first baseman who wanted $200 a month. He has been offered the managership and will be requested to sign a number of new players, especially a new battery. The little want column that papers of the interstate league have been running for Springfield's benefit, isn't as much of a joke as it might be. All the Springfield club needs is a manager who knows where good players are to be had, and who knows how to manage them when he gets them. The present series with Fort Wayne will probably be dropped by the Indians. They need it in their business and it doesn't make much difference to Springfield. The Governors can hardly be expected to win when they have to borrow players to pad out the nine. The directors further decided last night that no more Sunday games should be

Do You Use It?

It's the best thing for the hair under all circumstances. Just as no man by taking thought can add an inch to his stature, so no preparation can make hair. The utmost that can be done is to promote conditions favorable to growth. This is done by Ayer's Hair Vigor. It removes dandruff, cleanses the scalp, nourishes the soil in which the hair grows, and, just as a desert will blossom under rain, so bald heads grow hair, when the roots are nourished. But the roots must be there. If you wish your hair to retain its normal color, or if you wish to restore the lost tint of gray or faded hair use Ayer's Hair Vigor.

attempted here in the face of the opposition. A proposition has been received from Lima to play Sunday games in that city, and it is said will be accepted.—Springfield Republic Times.

Wheeling will probably have a new second baseman to-day in the person of Bradley, who has been playing with the Zanesville team, of the Ohio-West Virginia league. The Wheeling management was negotiating for the player's release yesterday and the deal will no doubt go through in time for the new man to appear in the Wheeling uniform to-day.

In to-day's game, Campbell will probably pitch for the Wheelings, while Brodie or Jordan will go in the box for the Giants. Wheeling will play a desperate game and endeavor to retrieve the disgrace of yesterday's defeat, when the Nallers outbatted their opponents but were defeated through their own miserable fielding.

Scheible, who has been managing Youngstown's team for some time, was released Wednesday night and Eddie Zinram, the catcher, appointed in his stead. Mr. A. A. Anderson, the president of the club, accompanied his team to Wheeling and looked after the financial end of the club's interests.

President Anderson is anxious to buy the release of Third-baseman Lyons, but as the local team has no man with whom to replace him, it is not likely that a deal will be made.

The Beaumont Stud Sale.

NEW YORK, June 24.—At Sheephead Bay to-day the owners of the Beaumont stud offered at auction in the paddock a number of yearlings, mostly the get of Oat, the sire of the great colt Ornament. Most of the youngsters brought fair prices. Ornament's full brother was first offered. He went to J. S. Curtis for $10,000. The sales included the following: Ch. c. by imp. Order-Coots, James McLaughlin, $1,500; br. c. by imp. Order-Fancy, James McLaughlin, $1,000; b. c. by imp. Order-Hanna, James McLaughlin, $500; ch. f. by imp. Order-Miss Saxon, W. L. ## BELLAIRE

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip From the Glass City.

The spacious home of A. O. Mellot was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding yesterday at noon, when his only daughter, Miss S. Allie Mellot, was married to Mr. A. E. Smalley, of Brookville, Ind. Rev. O. W. Holmes, pastor of the First M. E. church, officiated, and only the families were present. After partaking of an elegant dinner Mr. and Mrs. Smalley took the 2 o'clock train for their home at Brookville. The bride is an accomplished lady of rare good taste, modest and womanly in all her acts, and a consistent worker in the church and its auxiliaries. The groom is an insurance man of high standing, and he is to be heartily congratulated in securing so estimable a lady for his wife. The best wishes of a host of friends follow them to their new home.

James, Williams the man who killed Wash Rinkes, near St. Clairsville last fall, and who was tried by a jury in the last term of common pleas court of murder in the second degree, sentenced there to pay the penalty, was brought back yesterday, and was in Bellaire in the morning in charge of Deputy Sheriff Foreman and Guard Goetz. The circuit court last week reversed the lower court and granted him a new trial. The reversal was for error on three points: Error as to the admission of the habitual criminal charge in the indictment, as to the selection of one juror, and in the admission of a part of the evidence.

Bellaire's celebration of the Fourth will be held on Monday, and will be on an elaborate scale. The entire day will be devoted to the parade, the ball games, the bicycle races, the fireworks and other amusements. Over $500 has been raised to defray the expense, and two brass bands will furnish the music. The Catholics have arranged for a picnic at Belmont Park, out of town and they will have quite a crowd, but the home celebration will be very elaborate.

The man Henderson, who has been locked up here since Saturday for having worthless drafts cashed, is spending his first time in jail. His father will be here from Marietta Sunday. He is sorely grieved at his son's downfall, but as the total amount is not over $50 the matter may be adjusted and the wayward man released.

The new steamer Queen City passed down yesterday and landed at the wharf in this city for ten minutes, during which time a large crowd from here went aboard. The steamer Charon made a good deal of noise. As usual, a number of kodak fends were on hand with their kodaks.

Mr. Thomas Sterret, a bottle blower at the Valley glass works, south of town, and Miss Jennie B. Miller, were married by Rev. W. Peregrine, of South Bellaire, M. E. parsonage Wednesday evening.

Oliver R. Henson and Miss Martha L. Jones, on license was granted in Wheeling, were married at the home of T. F. Tweedy, in this city, Wednesday evening, by Rev. H. S. Boyd, of the U. P. church.
